ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

State Historian of Confederate Records,

FOR THE YEAR 1898.

COLUMBIA, S. C., December 20, 1898.

To His Excellency W. H. Ellerbe, Governor of South Carolina.

SIR: I have the honor to submit through you to the General Assembly my Annual Report, together with the papers enclosed herewith, marked A, B and C, as well as addenda to Report, marked D and E.

Schedule A shows the total number of troops furnished for service, Confederate and State, by South Carolina, with other pertinent data—as appears from Rolls filed in this office to December 20th 1898.

Schedule B gives a number of Rolls, in addition to those embraced in Schedule A, bearing on the same subject, and augmenting the volume of service in the war.

Schedule C is the financial statement.

Addendum D and Addendum E give Acts in relation to the Confederate War from the Statutes at Large of South Carolina, and the List from the Adjutant General's report, in appendix to journal of the fourth session of the South Carolina Convention, exhibiting the approximate estimate of the strength of the force from this State in Confederate service on 30th August, 1862.

In my initial report, made less than three months after my appointment to office, and presented at the last session of the General Assembly, after stating that I had found time to do no more than to ascertain and present the exact status of the office work when I assumed charge, I added: "As for the future, in order to complete the work provided for in the joint resolution of December 20, 1893, it will be necessary to devise some efficient mode of securing the rolls out and missing, and this done, the next step would be for the Commissioner and Historian to secure the necessary data for the history that it is intended shall accompany the completed rolls—a history of the part taken by the State in the late war and that taken by the troops furnished by the State to the Southern Confederacy."

I am profoundly gratified to report that, in God's providence, through persistent efforts and many ways and means, I have been enabled to accomplish the work thus outlined.

Not only have all the Confederate Rolls proper—Infantry, Cavalry and Artillery, including the Field and Staff of Regiments and Battalions—been secured, but there have been obtained 4618 of every one companies of South Carolina Volunteers and other units of various kinds outside of the regular organizations, but closely identified therewith, making a grand total of 599 in all.

In addition, in furtherance of the work of my office as defined by legislative enactment, there have been collected and put in good shape and filed in my office many valuable historic sketches, connected with the Rolls.

It is not proposed here to give a thorough analysis of Schedules A and B, appended to this Report. They speak for themselves sadly and yet proudly, telling how South Carolina and the States Confederate with her rivalled the grandeur that was Greece and the glory that was Rome in their four years of unequal and unequalled war.

The following tables give the numerical results of the Rolls and the respective departments of service. Some of the Rolls, however, conceded, are absolutely complete, since many of them omit important data. In the matter, however, of the general enumeration is the main thing—the figures, though doubtless below the mark, may be deemed approximately correct.

A careful collation of all the data attainable gives the annexed results:

valuable and suggestive materials gathered from various sources, representing important lines of naval and military service in the war between the States.

2. Engineer Corps.

3. Medical Staff.

16. Charleston Troops in the War.

17. Field Officers taken from "List of Field Officers prepared by United States War Department."

18. General Field and Staff.

19. Hagood's Brigade, by Gen. Hagood.

The entire record thus made speaks for itself. It exhibits the fidelity with which South Carolina redeemed the pledge contained in her Ordinance of Secession.

The tabulation shows an enrollment in Confederate service of 61,603, and of State Troops 4,928, being a total of 66,531.

Assuming now, that ten per cent. of Confederate and twenty-five per cent. of State Troops have not been enrolled—and this is deemed a conservative estimate—it appears that South Carolina contributed to the cause of the Confederacy a total of 74,000 men in round numbers—and this, too, with an arms-bearing population placed in 1861-63 at less than 68,000.

Fifty thousand South Carolinians voted for secession!

Seventy-five thousand stood for it on the field of battle!

The joint resolution of December 20th, 1893, under which I received my appointment as the successor of the late General Farley, provided not only for the collection of the Confederate Rolls for publication, but also for the preparation of "Appropriate Sketches of the part taken by the State of South Carolina, and the various commands from this State in the late war, to be published with said Rolls."

Having assumed the office of Confederate Historian as late as October, 1897, I have not had at my command time enough to write history, even had I felt myself authorized to take up that high role in the absence of explicit legislative enactment.

I have, however, gathered from various sources and filed in my office not a few valuable historic papers.

The following is a list of the papers, manuscripts, &c., now in my possession reported by me in my last annual Report:

1. Roll of Honor—Rivers' work.
2. Rivers' Account of Raising Troops for State and Confederate Armies.

As for the Addenda Matters: The Acts in relation to the War of Secession, taken from the "Statutes at Large" of South Carolina, I have thought proper to publish, since apart from their intrinsic interest as echoes from the past, they give the legislative action under which South Carolina put on her armor, and they present the successive steps taken by South Carolina from 1861 to 1865 in raising the State Troops called from time to time into service.

The List of organizations from South Carolina in Confederate service on August 30, 1862, is an interesting exhibit, showing in the Exclusive, it appears, of Co. B, 37th Battalion, Virginia Cavalry, and of the South Carolina Carolinians, who served under the flag of the "Old Dominion."

In announcing the completion of my labors in the fulfillment of the high trust committed to me, and this in an enlarged form and upon a broader scope than that originally contemplated, I might here appropriately close this Report, and rest with a grateful sense of duty done and a high appreciation of the privilege accorded me of vindicating the truth of history, and of consummating a work of honor to the Dead and to the Living of our noble and self-sacrificing Confederate soldiery.

But I would be wanting in my whole duty if I did not further recommend to the General Assembly the logical conclusion of this matter by the publication in book form of the Rolls collected, with an appropriate sketch of the part taken by the State of South Carolina and the various commands from this State in the War between the States—agreeably to the joint resolution of the General Assembly approved December 20, 1893—the same being the thirty-third anniversary of the passage of the Ordinance of Secession of South Carolina.

No argumentation is necessary to increase the obvious force of the proposition.

The proposed publication as a matter of justice is due to the Cause in which South Carolina pledged her all in vindication of her sovereignty.

Moreover, the publication would be an act of statesmanship calculated to promote our State pride and to augment a feeling of brotherhood between our people that would strengthen the muniments of the Commonwealth.

My acknowledgments are due and are hereby tendered to those Confederate Survivors who have interested themselves in my work, and especially to Mrs. Augustine T. Smythe and Rev. John Johnson,

D. D., of Charleston, who have made valuable contributions to the Nor must I omit to commend the excellent spirit shown by Private [redacted] of Co. K, 13th Regiment, S. C. V., and Private J. B. [redacted] of Co. E, Orr's Rifles, who were instrumental in securing for this office the long missing Rolls of their respective companies.

I am, Sir, very respectfully,
 Yours, very truly,

TABULATION OF ROLLS.

The following tables give the number of the rolls of the respective departments of the service.

Few of the Rolls are perfect, many of them omitting important data, essential to a complete record of the number of officers and men in each command, such as the deaths from the several causes enumerated, the wounded and other casualties, the number surrendered, and other statistical data.

The tables exhibit: The organization; date of formation; period of service; number of field and staff; companies; commissioned and non-commissioned officers; privates; total enrollment; number discharged, transferred, and permanently detailed; total far duty; killed or died from wounds, from disease, in prison; wounded; captured; total casualties; surrendered; etc.

The number of a regiment, company, or detachment is given.

In addition to the regular organizations, there are numerous Rolls representing various departments of Confederate and Southern armies, as: Officers Confederate navy; signal corps; South Carolina; brigade runners and their captains; medical staff; engineer department; quartermasters and commissaries; Confederate roster prepared by Col. J. C. Jones; Roll prepared by the Executive Committee of the Southern Association of South Carolina; general officers of artillery; Charles's troops in the war; regimental and battalion organizations; field officers; etc. From a list of 600 officers prepared by the United States War Department; general field and staff, and sketch of Hagood's Brigade.
